Fall is here, let's be thankful! The students and I are thankful for the cooler temperatures. Thank you, parents, for getting involved with your child's education. End of September and beginning of October have proven to be challenging weeks with lots of activities. Honestly, it will slow down in February for the students, but not for the parents (Dinner/Dance Auction-just a heads up).

Learning needs to be top priority. Therefore, second quarter will be more challenging for the students. Yeah! My goal is to prepare them for high school and beyond to the best of my ability.

This 8th grade class is hard working and concerned about other's needs. I am honored to be their teacher. Kuddos to you, the parents, for raising and teaching your kids how to be children of God.

Please do not hesitate to call, text, or email me with any questions or concerns. I want your child to learn and be successful.

Happy Fall to all, hope to see you Sunday at the Sausage Supper. (The Best Ever!)

Lively Joyously,
Mrs. Brueggemann
